

Sector Classification for National Critical Infrastructure

August 2025

Sector (9)	Sub-sector (22)	Main tasks	Competent authority
Energy	Electricity	Provide stable electricity generation, power transmission, power allocation, maneuvering, monitoring, and other power supply facilities and systems.	Ministry of Economic Affairs (MOEA)
	Petrol	Provide stable petrol and facilities/systems that promote the development of petrochemical industries.	MOEA
	Natural gas	Provide transmission, storage, reception, and disruption facilities and provide stable facilities and control systems that supply natural gas.	MOEA
Water resources	Water supply	Provide high-quality, sufficient, and stable amounts of water, water dams, and other purification, water supply, and water quality protection facilities.	MOEA
Communications and transmission	Communications	Support important facilities and systems that provide communication services, such as landline, long-distance, and international communications, mobile communications, satellite communications, and digital communications.	Ministry of Digital Affairs (MODA)
	Transmission	Support important facilities and systems that provide communication services, such as radio broadcasting, television, and cable television.	MODA
Transportation	Land transportation	Provide mass transportation on land, such as road transportation systems and railway transportation systems (including conventional railways, high-speed railways, and mass rapid transit (MRT)).	Ministry of Transportation And Communications (MOTC)
	Sea transportation	Provide sea freight and systems/facilities related to commercial ports, industrial ports, and fishing ports.	MOTC, MOEA, Ministry of Agriculture (MOA)
	Air transportation	Provide aviation operation management and services related to aviation transportation.	MOTC
	Meteorology	Provide weather observations, weather forecasts, earthquake detection, sea condition descriptions, and announcements of other relevant weather information.	MOTC

Finance	Banks	The inter-bank exchange equipment and systems owned by the financial companies are primarily used for inter-bank New Taiwan Dollar funding appropriation services and other inter-bank services, such as ATM withdrawals, transfers, and balance checks.	Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC), MOTC
	Securities	Responsible for trading, clearing, and delivery of securities and futures within the country.	FSC
	Financial payment	Support operation systems that handle payment settlement systems in the country, such as the inter-business funding appropriation and settlement operation system, the bill exchange and clearing system, and the central registered bond settlement and delivery system.	Central Bank
Emergency rescue and hospitals	Medical care	Provide relevant systems and medical sites where medical care can take place	Ministry of Health and Welfare (MOHW), Ministry of National Defense
	Disease control	Provide monitoring and early warning of contagious diseases, contagious disease prevention and response, contagious disease quarantine at the border, and relevant systems and facilities that facilitate testing and technology R&D related to biological pathogens.	MOHW
	Emergency response system	Emergency operation center, fire rescue and disaster rescue system, and related vital facilities and rescue equipment.	Ministry of the Interior
Government agencies	Agency offices and facilities	Support the government's core tasks to remain functioning and support vital facilities and places necessary for leaders and officials to work.	Central government agencies
	Information and telecommunications system	Support vital information and communication systems that allow the government's core tasks to be carried out.
Science parks and industrial parks	Science and biomedical parks	Science parks and biomedical parks.	National Science and Technology Council (NSTC)
	Software parks and industrial parks	Software parks, industrial parks, and technological parks.	MOEA
Food	Agriculture and food	Essential facilities or systems that provide the stability of Agri-food production and storage supply chains.	MOA
	Food processing and manufacturing	Essential facilities or systems that support the stability of raw material supply, processing technologies, and market supply in food processing and manufacturing.	MOEA